

ment in Milwaukee, but in Boston the fight fans can see nothing but the Chicagoan, owing to the excellent record he has made in several fights there. Wells is already under 134 pounds and declares he is in perfect condition for the match.

B. L. Kammerer broke 99 targets in 100 tries, and won the feature event of the weekly shoot of the Chicago Gun club.

What is to become of George Stovall, last year manager of the Kansas City Federals? Stovall still has some good baseball in his system and has also proven on three different occasions that he has managerial ability. His first effort was with Cleveland, where he took the Indians left over by Larry Lajoie and slapped the team into a winning stride. Then he went to St. Louis at the head of the

